

Welcome Home, Glenn!

Glenn Caldwell is returning to NAL Insurance, where he started his career 24 years ago. Glenn is the new Vice President, Sales, effective June 7th, announced by Gary Lindsay, President of NAL. "Glenn Caldwell is a known leader in our industry. His knowledge of the industry, his exceptional work ethic and his unwavering commitment to meet the needs of customers will benefit all of our clients at NAL. We are certainly excited about his homecoming." said Lindsay.

For the past 16 years Glenn has focused exclusively on meeting the needs of large and small trucking companies and owner-operators. Glenn will continue to be hands-on. "Working with clients to develop programs that help them manage their financial performance while mitigating risk will be my overriding priority" said Caldwell.

NAL Insurance is the fastest growing provider of WSIB/WCB Alternative and Enhancement Coverage for Owner Operators and Fleets. NAL has earned a stellar reputation for developing innovative products, unmatched technological leadership, and delivery of great service and excellent value.
